What's New

January 2007...Who's Cooking at the Inn?

The answer to that question is the Underground Food Collective. Those amazing young chefs will again be preparing dinner at our farm. The date is Saturday, January 27th. To learn more about the dinner or to make reservations, please go to their website www.undergroundfoodcollective.org. Photos from the dinner they cooked here in May of 2006 are available on their website and also further down in the What's New area here. We hope you'll be able to join us for another fun and food filled evening.

Another fun site to visit is <http://firewouldburnme.blogspot.com/>. At this site you can read all about the fabulous dinner prepared by our friend Brian for a group of friends. The dinner was held at our farm and we were very pleased to be invited! Brian prepared an eleven course dinner, yes, you read that correctly, eleven courses. Our leisurely dinner started at 6pm and concluded at midnight. Everyone stayed over at our bed and breakfast and the next morning it was my turn to cook for everyone. After breakfast we all piled into a wagon that we affectionately call The Prairie Schooner and enjoyed a tour of our farm. In his blog Brian tells how he developed his menu and how he was able to source the majority of the ingredients from local producers. I don't know about you, but I love reading about food almost as much as I like eating it.
